Book Review Format for Grade 5

Use the following structure to organize the review:

1. Introduction Start with the basic information about the book.

- Title: The name of the book.
- Author: The name of the person who wrote it.
- Genre: The type of book (e.g., fantasy, mystery, historical fiction, non-fiction, etc.).
- Star Rating: A simple rating, such as 1 to 5 stars, to give an immediate impression of the book.

2. Summary Briefly explain what the book is about, including the main characters and the central problem or conflict.

- Main Characters: Describe the main people or characters in the story.
- Setting: Mention where and when the story takes place.
- Main Plot: Outline the main events or the "story problem."
- Crucial Tip: Do not give away the ending or major plot twists (avoid spoilers!).

3. Analysis and Personal Opinion This is the core of the review, where the student shares their thoughts and uses examples from the text to support them.

- Likes/Dislikes: What did you like or dislike about the book? Explain specifically why, using descriptive words and examples. Avoid general statements like "it was awesome".
- Favorite Part: Describe your favorite part and why it was memorable.

- Writing Style/Illustrations: Comment on the author's writing style (e.g., funny, serious, easy to read, vivid descriptions) or the quality of the illustrations.
- Theme/Message: Mention the main message or lesson the book is trying to teach, such as the importance of friendship or honesty.

4. Recommendation Conclude by Summarizing your overall thoughts and suggesting who would enjoy reading the book.

- Who should read it? Recommend the book to other fifth graders or a specific type of reader (e.g., "great for animal lovers" or "someone who likes mysteries").
- Final thought: End with a strong final sentence or a teaser question to make others want to read it.
